

Introduction for
Kim de Blecourt (da Blay kort)

Kim de Blecourt

AUTHOR | SPEAKER | ORPHAN CARE ADVOCATE

Kim de Blecourt (da Blay kort) loves the Lord, her family, and the calling on her life to serve the orphaned.

With nearly a decade of ministry experience, Kim is a popular women's speaker, author, and Bible teacher.

She's also the President/Founder of Nourished Hearts, a global ministry serving orphaned and vulnerable children.

But don't let Kim's smile fool you. Kim is a woman who is sure of her calling, relentless in her pursuit and has endless compassion for those she is called to serve.

Kim has determined not to waste the pain of her journey but to join with others in their pursuit of serving the orphaned around the world.

Her personal testimony, was captured in her first book, "Until We All Come Home: A Harrowing Journey, a Mother's Courage, a Race to Freedom."

Her award-winning Bible study, "I Call You Mine: Embracing God's Gift of Compassion" has been translated into four other languages, so far, in addition to English, and has taken her to speak in Africa and the Far East.

Kim lives in West Michigan with her husband and their children. When she's not running her busy household, you can find Kim attending her son's archery matches, meeting her daughter at the local bookstore for coffee, or simply trying to figure out what's for dinner.

Let's welcome Kim de Blecourt (da Blay kort)
